Mariko Wilcox

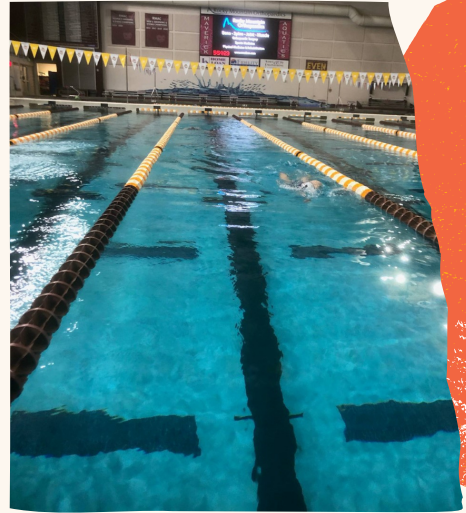

Mariko Wilcox is a financial advisor for Northwestern Mutual. She moved to Grand Junction in 2020 and became the face of the remote worker trend in Colorado via a story on CPR.

She is one of the inaugural "newbies" on GJEP's Welcome Wagon. Here's a typical workday for Mariko:

3 days per week, I wake up early and head over to El Pomar Natatorium at Colorado Mesa University for a swim with the local Masters team.

Weekends are for adventures

In the summer, you'll find me biking or hiking on the weekends. In the winter, I'm skiing: cross country, uphill or telemark.
